

Bridal Shower

Keep your guests entertained with Bridal Shower Games. Play something traditional or out of the ordinary. Here are a few ideas to help you.

The M-Word

The M-Word is "marriage" or any variation of the word "married" and "marry." Each player is given one clothespin or safety pin to wear. As the party progresses, any player who catches another player saying the M-Word gets to take that player's pin. The player who has the most pins is the winner.

Handbag Hunt

Have each player place her handbag on her lap. Then, one by one, call out items typically found in a handbag. Examples: lipstick, mirror, keys, gum, comb, pictures, etc. The player who has the most items wins.

And The Bride Wore...

Discreetly ask the Bride to leave the room. Then give each player a piece of paper to write down everything they can remember about what the Bride was wearing. The player with the most correct answers wins.

From A to Z

Players try to list something wedding related for every letter of the alphabet. The Bride's list will be used as the answer key. The player with the most correct answers (matching the Bride) wins.

Gift Guess

Before the gifts are opened. Have each player write down 25 different items they think the Bride will receive. When she opens a gift, check the item off your list. The player with the most correct guesses wins.

Word Magic

Players are given 3 minutes to write down words created from the Bride's full name. For fun variations, make your own rules like the words must be wedding, home, or couple related, etc. The player with the most "real" words wins. If there is a tie, the player who has the longest word in their list, wins.
