

Couples In Crisis

Couples in Crisis Project

Lovegevity's Couples in Crisis Project was founded in May 2003 by Cho Phillips and Sherrie Wilkolaski.

The mission of the foundation is to provide scholarship funds for counseling and relationship education for married couples who are experiencing difficulty in their relationship.

Lovegevity's mission is to help lower the rate of divorce in this country and provides a solid network of relationship experts and professional programs to support the Couples in Crisis Scholarship.

The Foundation is funded by proceeds from The Lovegevity Wedding Planning Game.

For information on donations and contributions,
please contact

The Lovegevity Charitable Foundation at (877) 597-8166, ext. .911

cri·sis (P)(krss)

n. pl. cri·ses (-sz)

A crucial or decisive point or situation; a turning point.

An unstable condition involving an impending abrupt or decisive change.

A sudden change in course, toward either improvement or deterioration.

An emotionally stressful event or traumatic change in a person's life.

A point in a story or drama when a conflict reaches its highest tension and must be resolved.

Scholarship Information

Couples in need of counseling should contact Lovegevity at 2530 Meridian Parkway 3rd Floor, Durham, NC 27713 for an application and detailed information on participating counseling programs in their local area.

Applications can be faxed to 888-221-9988.

For questions call 877-597-8166 ext.911.